By signing this form, I certify that the statements I made on this form are true and correct. I know that submitting false information can result in criminal and civil penalties.

I declare that the information provided herein is complete and accurate to the best of my knowledge. In addition, by signing this tax exemption form below, I am acknowledging and representing my understanding and acceptance of, and to be bound by, the additional tax terms and conditions set forth below.

Buyer's signature	Buyer's name (please print)	Title
Buyer's federal EIN or driver's license number and state of issue		Date

Tax Terms & Conditions

For purposes of these Terms and Conditions, "Customer" shall mean the buyer of the products referenced in this tax exemption form.

Taxes

Customer shall comply with all applicable state laws including sales and use tax.

Indemnification

Customer shall indemnify Williams-Sonoma DTC, Inc. ("WSDTC") or Williams-Sonoma Stores, Inc. ("WSS"), or any of its affiliates, subsidiaries, parent companies, directors, officers, employees and agents for any tax, interest and penalties that are assessed by a taxing or other governmental authority arising from or related to any failure on the Customer's part to collect and remit legally required tax on tax-exempt purchases.

Invoicing – Sales Tax Billing Errors

If Customer is invoiced sales tax incorrectly, Customer shall claim a tax paid purchase (or similar) credit on their state specific sales tax return for those states which permit the claiming of such credits.

If Customer requires a sales tax refund related to any previous purchases from WSDTC or WSS, a written request including a statement of facts, along with all relevant supporting documentation (e.g., Resales Certificate, etc.), must be submitted within three (3) months of the original invoice date.

Audit Requirements

Customer shall comply with all reasonable requirements and requests of Williams-Sonoma, Inc. ("WSI"), including but not limited to the submission of the state sales tax registration numbers for those states where Customer is sales tax registered and doing business.

In the event that WSI, WSDTC, WSS or any of their affiliates is subjected to any tax audits related to previous sales to the customer on a tax-exempt basis, customer will fully cooperate with WSI in providing all appropriate information, as well as any required documentation, in an effort to meet the tax audit requirements of all tax authorities.

General. This form is valid only if all information has been completed. The seller must keep a copy of the completed form on file. The seller is responsible for collecting sales tax if the form isn't completed.

Buyer, if the goods you're buying don't qualify for the exemption you're claiming, you will be responsible for the tax due.

1. Buying for Resale

Buyers must have an Idaho seller's or E911 fee permit number unless they're:

- Wholesalers who make no retail sales.
- Retailers selling only through marketplace facilitators. (A marketplace facilitator is a person who provides a marketplace for third-party sellers.)
- Out-of-state retailers with no Idaho business presence (e.g., physical location, representatives, employees, etc.).

An Idaho seller's or E911 fee permit number has nine digits, such as 000123456. You can validate a permit number by visiting tax.idaho.gov/validseller or contacting the Tax Commission.

2. Producer Exemptions

Businesses that primarily produce products for resale don't have to pay tax on goods that they directly and primarily use in the production process. Businesses offering the right to hunt or fish as a taxable activity don't have to pay tax on goods that they directly and primarily use in the hunting or fishing activity.

Qualifying businesses must pay sales tax on all of the following:

- Transportation equipment and supplies
- Goods used in selling or distribution
- Janitorial or cleaning equipment or supplies
- Maintenance or repair equipment and supplies
- Office equipment and supplies
- Any licensed motor vehicle or trailer and parts
- Aircraft and parts
- Recreational vehicle (e.g., snowmobile, ATV, off-highway motorcycle, camper, travel trailer)
- Goods that become improvements to real property (e.g., fence posts)

Loggers, broadcasters, and publishers of newspapers that are free to the public and contain at least 10% informational content (not ads) have a similar exemption. Sellers still must charge these businesses tax on purchases of the bulleted items listed above.

Seller: For producer exemptions, you can stamp or imprint an exemption statement on the front of the invoice. (Contact the Tax Commission to get the required language for the exemption statement.)

3. Exempt Buyers

These buyers are exempt from tax on all purchases.

Advocates for Survivors of Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault, Inc.

Schools primarily teaching subjects like business, dance, theater arts, music, cosmetology, writing, and gymnastics don't qualify.

Senior citizen centers. Only nonprofit community centers for senior citizens qualify.

Volunteer fire departments. Only nonprofit volunteer fire departments qualify.

4. Other Exempt Goods and Buyers

If buyers claim an exemption that isn't listed on this form, they must mark the "Other" box and list the section of the law that applies to the exemption. Otherwise, this certificate isn't valid.

Aerial tramway, snowmaking/grooming equipment. The sale, storage, use, or other consumption of parts, materials, or equipment that will become a component of an aerial passenger tramway are exempt from tax.

Snowgrooming and snowmaking equipment the owner or operator of a downhill ski area buys and uses to prepare and maintain the downhill ski slopes accessed by aerial tramways also is exempt. An aerial tramway includes chair lifts, gondolas, T-bar and J-bar lifts, platter lifts, rope tows, and similar devices. See Idaho Code section 63-3622Y.

American Indians. Sales to an enrolled Indian tribal member are exempt if the goods are delivered on the reservation. The buyer's Tribal Identification Number is required. For sales of vehicles or boats, use Form ST-133, Sales Tax Exemption Certificate - Family or American Indian Sales.

Certified data centers. Only data centers certified with the Tax Commission qualify. Certified data centers can buy the following without paying sales tax:

- Eligible server equipment including servers, rack servers, chillers, storage devices, generators, cabling, and enabling software integral to or installed on such equipment.
- New data center facilities, meaning the building or structural components of a building used primarily as a data center, including equipment, materials, and fixtures.

Churches. Churches can buy food for meals they sell to members or qualifying goods for their food bank without paying tax.

Food banks and soup kitchens. Food banks and soup kitchens can buy food or other goods used to grow, store, prepare, or serve food exempt from sales tax. The exemption doesn't include licensed motor vehicles or trailers. See Idaho Code section 63-3622O.

Heating fuels. Heating fuels such as wood, coal, petroleum, propane, and natural gas are exempt when purchased to heat an enclosed building or a building under construction, or when used for cooking or water heating. See Idaho Code section 63-3622G.

Seller: For heating fuel, you can stamp or imprint an exemption statement on the front of the invoice. Contact the Tax Commission to get the required language for the exemption statement.*

Sales of liquid propane in units of 15 gallons or less that are identified in the vendor's records as cylinder sales are exempt from tax. You don't have to keep a Form ST-101 on file for them.

Irrigation equipment and supplies. All irrigation equipment and supplies used directly and primarily for agriculture are exempt. See Idaho Code section 63-3622W.

Livestock. Sales of cattle, sheep, mules, horses, pigs, and goats are exempt when sold at a public livestock market. Sales of other animals don't qualify. See Idaho Code section 63-3622MM.

Medical items. Only the following prescribed medical goods qualify if a licensed practitioner will administer or distribute them: drugs, contact lenses, eyeglasses, oxygen, insulin, syringes, prosthetic devices, durable medical equipment, dental and orthopedic appliances (including fillings), urinary and colostomy supplies, enteral and parenteral feeding equipment and supplies, hemodialysis and peritoneal dialysis drugs and supplies, and chemicals and equipment used to test or monitor blood or urine of a diabetic. See Idaho Code section 63-3622N.

Pollution control items. The following items qualify: tangible personal property purchased to meet air or water quality standards of a federal or state agency; liners and reagents purchased to meet water quality standards; tangible personal property purchased to meet air or water quality standards and which become an improvement to real property of manufacturing, mining, farming or toxic waste treatment and storage businesses; and "dry-to-dry transfer systems" used in the dry cleaning industry. This exemption doesn't apply to items used in road construction, septic or sewer systems, drinking water treatment, or soil erosion prevention. Motor vehicles and buildings don't qualify. See Idaho Code section 63-3622X.

Qualified semiconductor projects. Applicants must submit a qualifying project outline to the Idaho Department of Commerce. Qualifying covered entities can purchase materials and supplies permanently installed or placed in or on a qualifying project without paying sales tax. A qualifying project includes activities conducted in Idaho to construct, expand, or modernize a facility for fabrication, assembly, testing, advanced packaging, or research and development of semiconductors. See Idaho Code section 63-3622WW.

Research and development (R&D). Purchases of goods that are primarily used to develop, design, manufacture, process, or fabricate a product or potential product qualify for exemption. See Idaho Code section 63-3622RR.

The Idaho National Laboratory and its contractors can claim an R&D exemption to buy goods directly and primarily used to advance scientific knowledge in areas that don't have a commercial application. Items that will become a part of real property don't qualify. See Idaho Code section 63-3622BB.
